

Stylish & Easy Urban Living

Stylish, easy urban living! Smack bang in the middle of an edgy downtown neighbourhood this one is styled for either a lock-up-and-go lifestyle or a brilliant return on your investment. Space and light galore with the entire 8th floor being yours! This glamorous city girl has New York loft feels with her high ceilings and an elevator that takes you straight up to your living area. She started out life as an old office building and we just know Samantha Jones would approve and feel right at home here. A walk-in closet in the bedroom and a gorgeous and well-equipped bathroom with soaking tub and large shower delivers a spa-like experience. If you really feel the urge to whip up a feast, the kitchen has everything you need to indulge that domestic whim. Close to all the action of city centre living but removed at the same time, this spot oozes light-hearted sophistication. Cocktails anyone? Views of downtown Cape Town through the semi-industrial style windows are amplified at night....

Cape Town City Centre at a glance

City Bowl / City Of Cape Town Cape Town is a coastal city on the southern tip of South Africa where worlds collide. This is where business, politics, tourism and pleasure all meet. Cushioned between the ocean and Table Mountain National Park is the City Bowl. The area is called home by a diverse community, houses head offices for both global and local corporations as well as Government parastatals. The City Bowl bustles with activity and diverse, unique retail opportunities abound. Food enthusiasts have a haven here too as many of the city's small alleys offer charming little eateries and coffee shops satisfying an endless array of gastronomic needs and wants. On the first Thursday of every month the streets come alive in the evening with music, dance and a vibe of its...
