

Olde world charm with two separate cottages - Knysna Central

7 5 2

Built in 1916 this remarkable historic home has been lovingly curated by its current owners over the past twenty years. The property consists of four erven over which three dwellings have been placed. The main house tastefully blends all the modern expected amenities with 100-year-old charm. On the ground floor the property boasts a beautifully appointed country kitchen and adjoining dining room with wide plank yellow wood flooring throughout. A substantial entertainment area with built in bar provides direct access to the elevated deck which offers outstanding views over the town of Knysna and out through the famous Heads towards the horizon. On the main floor one finds two en-suite bedrooms with an additional bedroom, bathroom and study located on the second floor. The beautifully laid out garden and outdoor spaces of this home complete a beautiful design. There are two substantial sized cottages on the property, each offering a spacious lounge dining kitchen area on the ground...

Knysna Central at a glance

Knysna is considered the "Pearl" of the Garden Route. It is made up of various suburbs which stretch around our famous lagoon from the Western Heads to the Eastern Heads. Offering activities for all age groups, from hiking, cycling, fishing, boating, walking, bowling, tennis, to the refinement of gentle activity in a lifestyle retirement village. Knysna is a short 60 kms from the George Airport - or the even-closer Plettenberg Bay airport - for those wishing to commute by air. Brenton on Sea hugs the coastline with access to the Brenton beach. There are freehold homes as well as several apartment blocks. While the Brenton on Sea Hotel offers a delightful spot to have meals or an evening drink. Brenton on Lake borders the lagoon with direct access to the water...
