

DRASTICALLY REDUCED - Lady Grey,
Spiritual and Blessed village

Myths & Legends makes her a mysterious, but beautiful Village with less than 7500 residents still believing that they see "God's thumbprint on her side". "Beautifully set in a valley against the backdrop of mountains, many trees, a number of interesting historic buildings and more gravel than tarred streets, Lady Grey is the jewel in the crown, one of the most scenic towns, in the Eastern Cape. Tucked away in a valley below the majestic Witteberg mountains, Lady Grey is a hidden gem, a tranquil, rural village founded in 1858. Surrounded by soaring mountains, crisp clean air and gentle streams, a number of charming country cottages provide a cosy retreat for the weary traveller. Old buildings have been restored to attract tourists and relocators. Lady Grey attracts nature lovers, bird watchers, hikers, star gazers and fly fishing enthusiasts. Wild trout and yellow fish are found in abundance in the streams and rivers in the area. Visitors wishing to fish here are advised to...
