

It's time to awaken to the ocean right at your doorstep.

5 4.5 2

This stunning property is located directly across from the beach and includes an additional plot at the back of the property in Curlew Crescent and is included in the price. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a well-designed open-plan living space that seamlessly combines the dining area, lounge, and kitchen. The exposed trusses create an airy and light-filled atmosphere throughout the house, and you can enjoy beautiful sea views while cooking. The home boasts two covered patios—one at the front and one at the back—making it the perfect place to host family and friends. Enjoy leisurely breakfasts facing the ocean or take advantage of the back patio, which features a built-in braai. If the weather is not favorable, you can cozy up by the fireplace with a good book. A guest bathroom is conveniently located off the entrance hall, and there is a cozy nook adjacent to the kitchen that can be used as a study or office. On the upper level, you will find three bedrooms and two bathrooms....
